CLASS HISTORY

The class of '55 started their glorious high school career not apprehensive as many of our predecessors have been, but brave, bold, and ready to accept the challenge of any obstacle that crossed our path.

In the eighth grade, besides giving the teachers a run for their money, we gave a play, written by several members of the class, and entitled, "A Colonial Day In Annapolis", to celebrate Maryland Day. Another highlight was a visit to the court house in Salisbury and viewing an actual case trial. Tragedy struck this year, however, when a trip to Trappe Pond on the last day of school resulted in the drowning of Jimmy Marvel. Leaving this year were Ned and Ted Fletcher and Adolphus Hooper, who decided that eight years of schooling was enough. At the end of this year we had twenty eight members, due to the arrival of Joe Comorat.

A saddened and much wiser class entered the ninth grade. Our visits to the power plant at Vienna and to Mrs. Park's to see the fishing fleet were the main events. The only loss this year was Henry Massey.

Realizing the need of funds toward the '54 Junior-Senior Prom and our New York trip, we chanced off a fruit cake and a quilt, but the biggest event of our Sophomore year was the origination of the Spring Hop. This year Jean Massey and Joe Comorat left our ranks--Jean to get married, while Joe transferred to Seaford.

Our Junior and Senior years proved to be the most exciting of our school days. As Juniors, we struggled harder than ever before, toward the big event of the year-the Junior-Senior Prom. It can best be described by the letter received from the '54 Seniors. Carl Truitt began the year with us, only to transfer to St. Michaels after the first semester. Also leaving this year was Terry Ryan, who joined the Navy.

On September seventh, twenty-two students walked through the doors of Mardela High to enter the Senior ranks. Soon to join us was Jimmy Larmore, replacing the twenty third member of our class, Rosetta Boog, who was married during the summer. The most memorable events of our final year were receiving our class rings, working on the 'Talisman', Soc Hop, Assembly Plays, trip to the University of Maryland, Senior class play, New York trip, Junior-Senior Prom, and---GRADUATION.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

Be it known to all men that we, the Senior Class of Mardela High School, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-five, in the town of Mardela, state of Maryland, being in full possession of alert minds and memories that should put the most extensive encyclopedia to shame, and so soon to pass from these scenes of educational activity, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament.

To the Juniors we leave the cafeteria, the class play, New York, the pleasure of enjoying the Prom without working, and the dignity, honor, leadership, athletic ability, and initiative of the present Senior Class. May they fill our places well!

To the Sophomores we leave the honor of giving our annual Spring Hop, and attach just one provision--that it always be given in April, except when Easter is in March.

To the faculty we leave the following:

TO MR. TWILLEY, we leave, hoping that he will find another class as quiet as ours.

TO MR. WHITE and MRS. PARKS, all the gratitude in the world for the great amount of help and guidance they have given us during the past two years.

TO MR. STEVENS, the hope that next years' class concentrates more on learning English than on filling their stomachs.

TO MISS ROGERS, more industrious students so she will have large academic classes.

TO MR. CROCKETT, a P. O. D. class from Timbuctoo, so they won't agree with him so often.

TO MR. SMITH, a dozen boxes of unbreakable crayons.

I, CARY ADSHEAD, leave my neatness to Leon Culver.

I, KATHARINE BANKS, leave my voice to Patsy Collins.

I, JANICE BENNETT, bequeath to Sylvia Stant my job as cashier in the cafeteria and to Midge Jones my height.

I, PHYLLIS BOUNDS, leave my neat appearance to anyone who can fill my shoes.

I, BILLY CALLOWAY, will my crew-cut to John Wayne Mitchell, and my long eye lashes to all the girls who envy them.

I, RONNIE DAVENPORT, leave my car to any of the Juniors who won't have a way to the University of Maryland next year.

Compliments of
ADKINS BROTHERS HARDWARE & FARM SUPPLIES
Mardela Springs, Md

I, NANCY ELLIOTT, will my place on the fieldball team to Jeanette Wilson and the "ick" to Joyce Nuttall.

I, MARTHA GAMBRILL, leave my easy going ways and dry humor to Alma Bennett, and my athletic ability to Elaine Windsor.

I, BILLY GOOD, leave my sharp tongue to Jimmy Dale Hastings, and my ability to drive a truck to Claude Robinson.

I, DARCY GREEN, will my job as janitor and my turn at the dishwashing machine to Kenny, so it will stay in the family.

I, STANLEY HEPNER, will my size to Ronnie Seabrease and my love to everyone.

I, BETTY JENNINGS, leave my marriage license and wedding rings to any girl who might want them.

I, CLARKE JOHNSON, bequeath my ability to compliment the girls to David Insley, and my brain to anyone who needs it.

I, LIDA KINNIKIN, leave my driver's license for the Juniors who take "Portie's car.

I, JOHN LANKFORD, leave my side-burns to John David Elliott.

I, JIMMY LARMORE, leave my height to Ronnie Adshead.

I, ROBERT McFARLANE, will my quiet ways to Richard Griffith.

I, CHARLES McGEE, will my voice to Doug, so that it won't get out of tune and will stay in the family.

I, SALLY PHILLIPS, bequeath my position on the cheerleading squad to Nancy Lou and dipping soup to Yvonne Willey.

I, WILLIAM ROBINSON, leave my place on the soccer team to Eddie Crowson.

I, ANITA SCHAUER, leave my peroxide bottle to Rachel Massey, but I prefer to take Buster with me.

I, NORMAN SMITH, leave my ability to stay awake in class to Ernie Wagner.

I, MARGIE WESLEY, leave my ability to eat without gaining weight to Joyce Nuttall and my height to Frank Hopkins.

We hereby constitute Richard Griffith executor of our last will and testament. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hand and seal, this third day of June.
